

Privacy statement from Villa-International

General

Villa-International thinks it is very important that data from visitors to our website are carefully processed and secured. In any case, we adhere to the requirements of the Data Protection Act (WPB) and later the General Data Processing Regulation (AVG).

How do we get your data and what data do we process ?

Villa-International only records what the visitors have filled in to the website and/or data that has been provided to us via e-mail. This is first name, last name, address, email and telephone number. We do not use third party data.

What do we use your data for ?

We process your personal data for the following purposes:

- concluding and executing agreements relating to our services
- contacting you if requested

We will not process your personal data for purposes other than those mentioned above, unless you have explicitly given permission in advance for this or we may or must do so on the grounds of the law.

You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. You can use the contact information below.

No profiling or automatic decision technology is applied by us.

We store the data for a maximum of 1 year after your last contact with us.

What are your rights ?

We offer all visitors the opportunity to view, change, or delete all personal information we have. If you want to change your data or want to get yourself out of our files, you can contact us. See the contact details below.

At the bottom of every mailing you will find the possibility to change your details or to unsubscribe.

Cookies

We use cookies to measure the visit on our website. If you do not want us to use cookies, you must set 'cookies off' in your browser. If you accept the cookies, they remain in your computer for five years, unless you delete the cookies. Turning off cookies may limit your use of our website and services. See also our cookies policy at our website.
